    Daily reconcile the amount indicated on the progressive sign/meter to the cash counted or received by the cage and the payouts made for each promotional progressive pot and pool. This reconciliation must be sufficiently documented, including substantiation of differences and adjustments. At least monthly, review all payouts for the promotional progressive pots, pools, or other promotions to verify payout accuracy and proper accounting treatment and that they are conducted in accordance with conditions provided to the patrons. At the conclusion of each contest/tournament, reconcile all contest/tournament entry and payout forms to the dollar amounts recorded in the appropriate accountability document. All prizes awarded through this promotion will be aggregated in a secure database by the Finance department. If the calendar year aggregated value is $600 or more, a form 1099-MISC will be issued by Finance. Promotional prize payout information sheets will be forwarded to and retained by Finance and Compliance and made available to the Tribal Gaming Agency upon request.
23. Employees of the Yakama Nation Legends Casino Hotel are not eligible for this promotion
24. The licensed gaming establishment shall put forth its best efforts to resolve customer disputes in a fair and equitable fashion and in a manner, which does not conflict with these Regulations. The licensee shall submit patron dispute procedures to minimize and resolve player disputes. In the event a dispute with a player cannot be resolved, the licensee is obligated to inform the customer that they may speak with the on-duty TGA representative to file a complaint. If the customer elects to speak to the agent, the licensee must immediately notify the on-duty TGA representative
25. Any immediate family member of a Team Member(s) conducting a gaming promotion may participate as long as another, unrelated Team Member at a higher or separate position level activates their participation. For example, if a family member of a family member of a player's club representative wants to participate in a promotion, then a supervisor or manager would need to authorize it. If a family member of a player's club supervisor or manager wants to participate in a promotion, then a Casino Shift Manager would need to authorize it. Family members are identified as: spouse, domestic partner, parent, grandparents, siblings, child, in-laws, stepfamily, foster family, and persons regularly living in the same household.
